

South Portland City Council
Position Paper of the City Manager

Subject:

ORDER #121-16/17 – Appointing Will Haskell to the Long Creek Watershed Management District Board of Directors. Passage requires majority vote.

Position:

The Long Creek Watershed Management District has representation on the Board of Directors by two municipal officials or employees, four private landowners or their representatives, and one representative from a non-profit corporation with an interest in the Long Creek Watershed. One municipal official position is currently held by Stormwater Program Coordinator Fred Dillon and the other was vacated by outgoing Mayor Tom Blake. The four private landowner positions are currently filled and the non-profit corporation position is currently vacant. This item concerns appointing Will Haskell as the non-profit corporation representative on behalf of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth Community Chamber of Commerce.

Requested Action:

Council passage of ORDER #121-16/17.
