

South Portland City Council
Position Paper of the City Manager

Subject:

ORDER #31-14/15 – Disbanding the Draft Ordinance Committee. Passage requires majority vote.

Position:

On January 22, 2014, the City Council established Draft Ordinance Committee consisting of three members. The Committee was charged with the task of developing an ordinance to address development proposals involving oil sands/tar sands products.

On June 25, 2014 ordinance recommendations were presented to the City Council. Part I was approved by the City Council on July 21, 2014 and Parts II, III and IV of the recommendations were discussed by the City Council on September 22, 2014.

The Committee has completed its work and this order is brought forward to disband the Committee and formally thank the members for its efforts in completing this work.

Requested Action:

Council passage of ORDER #31-14/15.
